Elections 2024 - Call for Candidates

The Cape Independence Party - CAPEXIT is looking forward to contesting the 2024 General Elections and is currently inviting supporters to submit candidate/volunteer applications.

Dear Supporter",

Are you ready to show your support for Cape Independence and represent the Cape Independence Party as a candidate or volunteer in the upcoming elections?

Cape independence will be won by communities and individuals like yourself coming together and making this vision a reality.

If you would like to get involved, please send in your application by replying to this email with your contact details and area/voting ward. If you have a CV or resumé please include this in your reply.

Thank you once again for supporting the Cape Independence Party - CAPEXIT. Together we can build the country we always longed for!
